is committed to promoting workplace safety within our company and our industry.

We believe that the safety and well-being of our employees is our most important priority.

We believe that the prevention of accidents is the responsibility of both management and individual employees.

In order to provide the safest possible working conditions, our company is committed to the implementation and continuation of a strong safety program.

We will help to accomplish this by:

- ❖ Adopting and adhering to a written safety program
- ❖ Establishing a safety committee within
- ❖ Participating in Back2Work™, Summit's return-to-work program
- ❖ Educating and training new employees how to work safely
- ❖ Conducting regular safety-awareness training
- ❖ Timely reporting, investigating and documenting of every accident
- ❖ Adhering to OSHA posting requirements
